Alaska Native Hire

Alaska Native Hire is an easy-to-use online forum that brings together job seekers and employers.

The site allows individuals to create a profile highlighting their experience, skills, education and employment history. Job seekers can use the information entered into their profile to create a resume. Employers then have the ability to search the database for the specific skills to fill vacant positions and view job seeker resumes.

For job seekers, this is the website where the jobs find you.

For employers, Alaska Native Hire is a powerful tool to help meet your local hire needs.
